FROM THE COMMANDER

Welcome to Life at the Max! Home of the Air University and home of the American Civil Rights movement, and now, your home. On behalf of the 42d Force Support Squadron, I am excited to welcome you and your families to Max-Gun and look forward to seeing you on campus.

Whether this is your first or second time here at Maxwell AFB and Gunter Annex, or you've simply lost count, our mission is simple: Produce resilient, combat ready warriors, and provide quality mission support. With an emphasis placed on ensuring your stay is productive and enjoyable, our FSS warriors available, all day, every day, no problem to provide you and your families with the resources and mission support required to prevail in an era of Great Power Competition. If you are looking for something to do, I want to encourage you check us out at www.lifeatthemax.us, or download the Life at the Max app.

If you have questions or need assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out to anyone on our team so that we can assist you.

Maj Kevin Slaughter, Jr.
Commander, 42d Force Support Squadron
